

Media Release

6 August 2009

30 September 2009 will be the tenth anniversary of the closure of Newcastle Steelworks.

Newcastle Industrial Heritage Association will hold two events to mark this anniversary.

On Saturday 26 September a reunion will be held for anyone who worked at the steelworks or its successor Onesteel, at the Mayfield Sport & Recreation Club at 12.30pm.

A series of activities will take place at the event and everyone is welcome to attend.

On Wednesday 30 September 2009 at 11:00am, a 10th anniversary ceremony will be held at the "Muster Point" sculpture on Industrial Drive, near the entrance to the steelworks site.

Julie Squire the sculptor of the Muster Point, Jack Risby past General Manager of the steelworks, and Craig Norman GM Hunter Development Corporation will speak at the ceremony followed by refreshments. Everyone is welcome to attend.

For more details contact:

Bob Cook

President

Newcastle Industrial Heritage Association Inc.

Ph 49261117

Mob 0 419241731

Email bobcook@pacific.net

Website www.niha.org.au